Sport Commissioners Reports

Basketball by Sandra Lang

- Good season.
- One more game this weekend. Looking to have an end-of-season party.
- Deciding if we are going with GLOW again or not.
- Will have a coaches' meeting to collect jerseys and review what was discussed at the commissioners meeting.

HS Basketball by Matt Shay

- Youth Clinic scheduled for March 26.
- Have leagues and town team for older kids.
- Spring League is not having modified.

Soccer by Jasmine Loggins

- Still looking for a commissioner. If we don't find someone, this will impact 120 kids.

Softball & Baseball by Russ & Cassandra Schmidt

- Registration looks good (106 so far). There will be two 12u, two 10u teams and five t-ball teams. Need softball players.
- Update from GLOW meeting: Ian's son is able to play.
- Amber typed up letters for sponsorships. They are going out this week.
- Darien Town still has to approve residents getting free registration.
- Coaches' meeting planned for March 14. Jasmine will help reserve a place.

Football by Marty Franks

- Flag season is getting off to a good start. Twenty registrations so far.
- Will have a chicken BBQ fundraiser.
- Will launch registration for regular football in April/May.
- Will hold a parent meeting end of March/beginning of April.
- Encourage people to join.
- June 11: end of season game will be a conflict with the Perry Baseball Tournament.

Cheerleading by Jasmine Loggins

- Thirteen girls signed up for bootcamp.
- Successful winter cheer season. Going to Erie to compete. Going to Virginia Beach the end of April. Looking at fundraisers for that trip.
